

Weary Traveler

Today we take time to honor and recognize our graduates. Graduates, you will face many experiences during your life as you make your way through it. Some of you are excited for what lies ahead in your travels through life and others look toward the future with apprehension and doubt. Whether the journey you are about to set out on is one filled with joy or disappointment, you are not meant to do it alone! So, as we travel through life and experience all the good, the bad and the ugly that it has for us; you will at some point become weary. The most seasoned traveler becomes weary at times. Even when the trip has been a good one! You will during your travels find yourself wanting to take a break from current circumstances or wanting the journey to slow down, speed up or just stop! As Christ followers, Jesus wants you to know that you don't have to travel through life alone. He wants to travel with you and when you find yourself weary, he wants to be the one you lean into!
