

Understanding Common Grace

Matthew 5:45

1. To understand common grace, one should realize that apart from God's saving grace, there is also a certain favor or grace which God shows to all his creatures in general (Matthew 5:45; Acts 14:16-17; Psalm 145:9)
2. To understand common grace, one should realize that God, without renewing a person's heart, restrains sin which makes human life in society possible (2 Thessalonians 2:6-7)
3. To understand common grace, one should realize that non-Christians, though unable to do any saving good, are able to perform civil good (Romans 2:14; 2 Kings 10:28-30)
