

Do Something Good: God Opposes Love of Material Things and Man-Focused Religion

Amos 3

1. To do good, we should realize that our status as God's people does not hinder God from giving us the consequences of our actions (Amos 3:1-2)
2. To do good, we should be open to the warnings that God has placed in our path to point out our wrongdoings (Amos 3:3-8)
3. To do good, the failure to use material things properly and to conduct religious activities with sincerity will result in the loss of both (Amos 3:9-15)
